

The Rainy Day Is NOW!

- Build permanent housing for the homeless
- Spend State surplus $$$ to build housing for poor and middle income people

On Holy Thursday members of the Metropolitan Ecumenical Ministry's Housing Task Force went to Trenton to tell Governor Kean to spend some of the State surplus money to build housing for people. Governor Kean says he is saving the surplus money for a "rainy day"

We are going back to Trenton to tell Governor Kean that THE RAINY DAY IS NOW! for those who are homeless or living in inadequate housing. Join us!

Friday June 21 12 noon
Rally in front of the State House in Trenton

People from Newark will be leaving at 10:00 A.M. from Peter Francesca Park, near Penn Station. For directions, more information, or rides, call Nancy Zak, 344-7210 or Rev. David Robinson 623-9259 at Metropolitan Ecumenical Ministry, 969 McCarter Highway, Newark.

Bring an umbrella!